

S.S.A. & Sparks Travel Club Present

Saturday, November 11, 2017

The Hit Men are five brilliant musicians and singers who, throughout the 1960s, 70s, and 80s, toured and recorded with some of the biggest names in the business - huge stars from Frankie Valli and Carly Simon, to Carole King, Cat Stevens, Jim Croce, Elton John, Paul McCartney, Barry Manilow, Rod Stewart, and many, many more. They are not a tribute act. They are not the former cast of a Broadway musical. They are the actual writers & artists who helped rocket so many to the top of the Billboard charts. The Hit Men credentials and sheer talent are unmatched by any other group in modern music. They deliver sizzling shows that combine hit after hit after hit reminiscences born from their witnessing and making musical history.

This performance is presented at the Harris Center in Folsom. A small, intimate theatre with fantastic acoustics that opened in 2011, this theater seats only 800 and our seats are some of the best in the house in the lower level orchestra area.

Lunch will be included today in Historic Folsom at the Hop Sing's Palace. Free time will also be included to explore the extensive collection of shops, galleries and museums along Sutter Street (Weather Permitting). Round Trip Coach Transportation from Carson City & Reno area, All Admissions, taxes & gratuities for included features, Driver's Gratuity, Refreshments on board the coach throughout the tour, Escorted by Frontier Travel Staff!

Tour Cost for this fun day tour is only!:

$130.00 per person
