Day One: Monday May 6, 2019

WesternMiningHistory.com

We'll serve a continental breakfast on board the coach this morning (as well as refreshments throughout the tour) as we depart Sparks & Carson City. Our first stop will be in the town of Volcano to have a hosted lunch at the Historic St. George Hotel. Following lunch, we will head on over to the Kennedy Goldmine tour famous for being one of the deepest gold mines in the world at 5912 feet, demonstrates how gold changed an entire way of life in California. Although gold was known to be present and was mined by the Spanish and Mexicans, the California Gold Rush did not begin until after James Marshall's discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill in 1848. Between 1848 and 1858, California exploded from being a largely unpopulated agrarian state into a vital, fast growing and exciting part of the United States. Prospected in 1860, reorganized in 1886 and continuously run until 1942, the Kennedy Gold Mine produced approximately $34,280,000 in gold according to the CA Dept. of Conservation. One of the tallest head frames in existence today can be seen at the Kennedy Mine. The mine also had one of the largest stamp mills in the Mother Lode, moving tailings by means of huge wooden wheels, some of which are still standing. Included with this tour we will all get to Gold Mine ourselves.

Day Two: Tuesday, May 7, 2018

Start the morning out with an included breakfast at the hotel. We'll then travel to the beautiful Ironstone Vineyard for a Private tour of their premier winery and entertainment complex- a modern replica of an 1859 gold stamp mill, complete with a tasting room, aging cavern, conference & wedding facilities, outdoor amphitheater, 14.5 acres of exquisitely landscaped gardens and more. You can also listen to their magnificent Alhambra Pipe Organ, located in the beautiful music room. The Heritage Museum and Jewelry Shoppe contain artifacts from the gold rush era and the world's largest specimen of Crystalline gold leaf a 44-pound treasure uncovered just a few miles from their doors. Also included will be a scrumptious buffet lunch especially prepared for our group.

Following our visit here we'll board our coach for the journey home with return scheduled for early this evening.
