

S.S.A. & SPARKS TRAVEL CLUB'S PRESENT:

Bently Heritage Distillery & Genoa's Pink House

Wednesday September 18th, 2019

Like the distilleries of the old world, we use only our own grains grown right here on our ranch in Nevada. Bently Ranch sustainably grows and harvests winter rye, wheat, oats, and barley which we malt in-house, on our own malting floor. Our home is the more than 100-year-old Minden flour mill which sits proudly on the National Register of Historic Places. Once the largest operating mill in the area, today it is restored to modern LEED-certified standards. The mill again processes grain — this time for the creation of some of the finest spirits in the world for Bently Heritage.

The Reese-Johnson-Virgin House, more commonly known to locals as The Pink House, stands near the center of town in historic Genoa, Nevada. Listed in the National Register of Historic Places for its “association with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history”, The Pink House has hosted and borne witness to significant events in Genoa and Nevada’s past. It is also recognized for its architectural significance as an example of the Gothic Revival style that was popular in the 19th century. It’s story plays out like a scene from a Western drama, providing a wealth of insight into the life and times of old Genoa.
