

S.S.A. & SPARKS TRAVEL CLUB'S PRESENT:

Sunday, August 25, 2019

The famed Hearts of Gold Cantaloupe saw its start in 1911, These luscious melons were grown here in abundance in the 1920's and 1930's, as the demand for them in the Eastern US grew; it has even been rumored that the Fallon Hearts of Gold were served in the White House! The hard rind made this variety ideal for cross country rail shipments, and the high price per crate made this a crop that's price was worth the risk to the Fallon farmers. Not all good things last however, as the market crashed in the late 1930's and our festival's namesake almost met its extinction. The once prosperous melon crop was replaced by the more stable production of alfalfa in the Lahontan Valley, and was only kept in production by a group of 6 Chinese immigrant families who were able to revive the vine back to its former glory. In 1985 a group of locals saw the opportunity to bring back our beloved melon. Que a "Golden Return" and the start to what has become one of Fallon's great events to bring fun and excitement to the community every harvest season. Today the Fallon Cantaloupe Festival & Country Fair holds the title as one of Nevada's longest running agricultural festivals. Past attractions included at this festival of course include the Cantaloupe vendors, Food vendors, Shopping vendors, Tractor Show, Cornhole Classic, Square Dancing, County Fair Games, Juggling Comedian, Ventriloquist, Hot dog eating contest, Pig races, and so much more. Also, on the property is "The Old Dry Gulch Saloon" know for their locally brewed cantaloupe drafts and delicious cantaloupe daiquiris!
