Discover Malakoff with Humbug Day

Saturday June 13th, 2020

We hope that you'll join us as we take a step back in time. The friends of North Bloomfield, Malakoff Diggins and CSP are hosting their 54th anniversary of the establishment of Malakoff Diggins. This annual celebration (originally called Homecoming) known as "Humbug Days", celebrates California's Golden Olden Days with volunteers in period costume interpreting the historic heritage at North Bloomfield (formerly Humbug) the State Park's semi-ghost town.

The furnished historic buildings include a residence built in 1852, drug store, barbershop, general store, saloon, blacksmith, stable, and the park museum and visitor center. Special attractions during this celebration include the world's shortest parade, the Carmichael Jug Band, Chris Crockett and his guitar, Square Dancing demonstrations, storytelling at the gazebo, BBQ, food vendors, Ice Cream, Root beer floats, popcorn, historic crafts & games and the ceremonial demonstration of the "monitor" water cannon. Come discover the idyllic splendor of one of California's most enchanting state parks. (attractions are subject to change but would be similar to these of prior years)
